

A Simple Observation, or a Single Report, can lead to actions that may STOP a terrorist attack

SEE SOMETHING – SAY SOMETHING

What to Report

- Date and time activity occurred
- Where activity occurred
- Physical descriptions of the people involved
- Description of the vehicle(s) involved
- What type of activity
- Describe what you saw or heard
- Provide pictures if you took any

Who to Report to

- Military Police
- Local law enforcement
- Security forces
- Chain of Command
- Army Counterintelligence

Indicators of Potential Terrorist Behavior

- Persons advocating loyalty to a foreign interest over loyalty to the U.S.
- Persons expressing hatred for or advocating violence against American society or government.
- Persons advocating support for terrorist or violent extremist organization.
- Evidence of terrorist training or attendance at terrorist facilities.
- Persons repeatedly viewing websites that promote terrorism.
- Persons exchanging information on websites that promote use of force against the U.S.
- Seeking religious or political justification for a planned violent act.
- Expressing acceptance of violence as a necessary means to achieve ideological goals
- Communicating a desire for revenge, promoting violent extremist narratives, sharing and praising violent extremist videos.
- Attempts to radicalize others, especially peers and family members.
- Participating in on line sites or groups that promote violent extremism.
- Seeking or claiming relationships with incarcerated or infamous violent extremists.

or or Extremist Activities (not all inclusive)

- Changing vocabulary, style of speech or behavior to reflect hardened point of view or new sense of purpose associated with violent extremist causes.
- Persons joking or bragging about association with a foreign intelligence service, terrorist group, or violent extremist group.
- Persons sending large amounts of money to foreign countries.
- People photographing, drawing or measuring important facilities.
- Persons asking questions about sensitive information such as building blueprints, security forces/plans/procedures, or VIP travel schedules without a need to know.
- Persons purchasing explosive devices or bomb-making materials or seeking instructional information on their design and use.
- A briefcase, suitcase, backpack or package left unattended.
- Vehicles left unattended in No Parking zones adjacent to important buildings.
- Intruders found in secure areas where they are not authorized/don't belong.

No one behavior, standing alone, should be considered an indicator of potential for violence; rather all behaviors and circumstances should be considered in totality.
